

REAL ESTATE WEEKLY

December 2, 2009

REBNY's November Retail Committee Luncheon featured noted retail consultant and TV commentator Howard Davidowitz who compared and contrasted the health of NYC's retail market to other US markets. Davidowitz expressed tremendous concern about the US dollar and the high US unemployment figures. He predicted close to 200,000 stores will close in the US in 2010. Pictured L - R: Chase Wells, Retail Committee Chair; Howard Davidowitz; Joanne Podell, Cushman & Wakefield and Peter Braus, Retail Membership Chair.